Week One, Term 4

12 October 2023

Kia ora whanau

It has been wonderful being back in our new block. The classrooms look amazing and the children and staff have enjoyed being back in their learning spaces. A big thank you to everyone involved who supported the school rebuild. A special thank you to Andrew Smith who put up the new school sign and moved the old one over the road.

Values

Our focus for Term 4 is being responsible, being kind and doing our best. This week Josh McDowell received the values award for being responsible with his leadership in singing. Ka pai Josh.

Silver Award

Blake McDowell receives his silver award for receiving 100 gold nuggets. Ka pai Blake!

Certificate Recipients this week were Sam Sharp, Thomas McKee, Monty Goulding and Archie Catto.

(Apologies to Monty and Archie as the photo has gone missing)

Values

Our values focus last term was being responsible. This week Josh McDowell and Archie Catto receive this award. Josh has been responsible in our vege garden by shovelling wheelbarrow loads of soil, carting soil and helping Rhys. Archie has been responsible in our gardens by helping scooping and spreading dirt and asking Rhys if he needed help. Well done to both of these boys!

Archie Catto received his bronze award for 50 gold nuggets and demonstrating our school values. Ka pai!

Certificate Recipients

Byron Leti - taking responsibility for his learning by completing work to a good standard.

Emma Szorenyi - taking responsibility with your writing. It's great to see you checking to make sure your letters are correctly formed. Super work Emma!

Wilbur Gunton - doing what great readers do, using your sounds, re-reading for making sense and using expression. You rock Wilbur!

Bridget Gunton - having a positive attitude at school. You give everything a go!

Darcy Goulding - the time and effort that you put into making your poster on a New Zealand disaster. Ka pai!

Alfie Gunton - trying your best during phonics. You have made a great effort to check your sounds, capital letters and full stops. Ka Pai!

Teacher Only Day

There will be a teacher only day on the 24th November. Please pop this in your diary.

There is lots of in Term 4, keep an eye out on the calendar below for what's happening.

Enjoy your weekend.
